A THING THAT MAKES UP HALF OF MY DNA

Scratch

In mammals, such as humans, who are classified as XY type, the autosome chromosome which determines one's sex is called allosome.

Scratch

Furthermore, in a case of a gene that is composed of chromosomes that classify drosophila and the like, the individual is a female, and in a case of an individual composed of both XY, the individual is a male.

Waaah

Flop

Well then, that's all for today.

Next, in regards to genetic inheritance-

Make sure to look over the corresponding section in your workbooks by the next lesson.

I will hand it over

Would you like to

PEOPLE SEEM TO ORIGINALLY BE ATTRACTED TO INDIVIDUALS WITH GENES DIFFERENT FROM THEIR OWN.

I don't... think I hate this.

Doing
nothing but memorizing
biology was boring, but

To think genetics
could be this...

Girls are XX,
boys are XY, and
color blindness
is a recessive
gene on the X
chromosome,

so in a case of a daughter being color blind and
the husband not,
the family tree
should look something like this...

IT'S NATURAL DISPENSATION. IT'S A PROSPERING CONDITION.

BUT

THERE IS ONLY ONE PERSON IN THIS WORLD

WHO WILL NOT STOP ATTRACTING ME. THAT INDIVIDUAL IS

Mom

THE PERSON WHO MAKES UP HALF OF MY DNA.
